BLESSINGS OF GOD BE YOURS...

" Hear my prayer O LORD, and give ear to my cry; do not hold your peace at my tears. For I am your passing guest, an alien, like all my forebears." (Psalm 39:12)

Heavenly Father! I praise You! O Holy God! I praise You! You who look on us with love and pay heed to our petitions, I praise You!

LORD , You listen to the outburst of cries from the poor , desperately calling out to You and so I praise You!

Father God! I praise You! O Holy One! Yaweh I praise You! Look on me mercifully O Christ! Never forsake me.

O God! My God! You who are my Refuge! You look at my tears O LORD! Speak to me and do not be silent.

LORD God ,You know all the ailments and troubles in my body. Although the physicians load me with pills, yet You alone can heal me ! You alone possess the power to heal me completely !

LORD it is enough that You will, it is enough that You turn your gaze towards me, I will be healed immediately. LORD in Your mercy and grace I shall be healed. I will rise up, raise up my voice in praising Your Name.

LORD pay heed to my petition, take away the head ache that nags me!

Yaweh! My God! The heart pain that I have, the ulcers of the intestines, nervous weaknesses, shoulder pain , backaches, Bless me that I may be healed of all these aches and stand erect!

Bless me that I may walk erect in your Presence! O Father God! Bless me !

O God! I thank You! I Thank You for the Love and Mercy that You show towards me.

O LORD God! I Thank You that You commanded healing for me and for blessing me to shine brightly in Your Loving Presence!

You who inclined to pay heed to my petition , I Thank You!

AMEN ! ALLELUIA ! I Praise You!

BELOVED IN CHRIST...

" Which of you desires life, and covets many days to enjoy good? Keep your tongue from evil, and your lips from speaking deceit." (Psalm 34:12,13)

We all wish to be very happy in our life. With husband and wife, cousins and relatives, friends and dear ones, we all seek to be happy in each other's company. We want even our private life to be filled with joy.

We enquire of one another's wellness when we meet." We wish, "Long life with prosperity."

We toil hard that we may be joyful and prosperous in our life. We bring up children, we give them good schooling, we build a house, we save money for the future. In spite of all these riches, when our relationships tear down, we become torn at heart. We go without experiencing the happiness that we desired. Behind this , we should weigh our talk and our thoughts.

Was there a moment or situation in your life when you were very troubled? Think about this for a while.

What thought or on thinking of whom or on thinking of which circumstance or which circumstances were you plunged in such deep sorrow and trouble?

Examine your conscience. You will find, bad word, craftiness, anger, one of these embedded within. If there is no evil talk coming out of our mouth, no cursing language, then what can disturb our happiness? Meditate upon this.

Some relatives took part in a wedding ceremony. The wedding took place in a marriage hall close to the Cathedral. The Church glittered with the decorations during the Holy Mass. The musical extravaganza was at its peak. The priest preached a very well prepared homily. The relatives and friends were seated in the hall decked with expensive jewellery. The dinner was on in full swing. There was happiness in the air. An uncle of the girl was conversing with a person in the boy's side. At that moment one of the groom's people made a passing remark demeaning the bride's side. This penetrated the heart of the bride's people very sharply. At that very instant the voices from both the parties touched incomprehensible decibels. All the visitors were stunned and turned towards the direction. In an instant the newly married couple stood baffled not knowing what to do. There were blows even without knowing the reason behind. The visitors who were stunned looked at each other in bewilderment and left the marriage hall. Within seconds the marriage hall was transformed into a battle field. Joy gave way to sorrow! Meditate upon this...
